

Zion Canyon Shuttle System

The Springdale Shuttle loop will stop at six locations in Springdale and the Zion Canyon Shuttle loop will stop at eight locations in the park. The transfer between loops is made at the Zion Canyon Visitor Center. You may get on and off as often as you like. Riding the shuttle is free.

Parking

Park in Springdale and ride the shuttle to the park, or park at the Zion Canyon Visitor Center.

Schedule

Shuttles will operate daily beginning at 6:30 a.m. every 30 minutes, increasing to every 15 minutes and then, during the busy part of the day, every 6 or 7 minutes. Toward evening shuttle times will scale back to 15 minutes, then to 30 minutes. The last bus will leave the Zion Canyon Visitor Center at 9:30 p.m. A complete round trip will take a minimum of 90 minutes. Only the scenic drive is closed to private vehicles; all other roads in the park remain open for driving.

What to bring

For a day-trip on the shuttle, you should bring:

Water

Food / Snacks

Walking Shoes

Map

Sunscreen / hat / sunglasses

Camera / binoculars

Please

No eating, drinking, or smoking on the bus.

No pets.

Image

Image

This is an example of a caption, labeled "Caption" in the styles menu. This text box should start .125 inches from the bottom of the image above.

Head-B

Dummy copy. To visit Fort Pulaski National Monument, follow U.S. 80 East toward Tybee Island. The Monument entrance is located approximately 15 miles east of Savannah.

Head-B

This is dummy copy. This illustrated biography, Thomas Jefferson: Genius of Liberty, with essays by leading scholars, is the companion volume to the Library's major exhibition on Thomas Jefferson. This exhibition is also part of the celebration of the two hundredth anniversary of the Library of Congress. Indeed, the Library of Congress is one of Thomas Jefferson's principal legacies. The anniversary of the founding of the Library of the acquired by the United States in 1815 as the core of the Library of Congress. Indeed, the Library of Congress is one of Thomas Jefferson's principal legacies. The wide range of his interests determined the universal and diverse nature of the Library's collections and services. Founded in 1800 as the national government prepared to move from Philadelphia to the new capital city, the Library of Congress owned 740 books and 3 maps a year later.

While he was president of the United States from 1801 to 1809, Jefferson took a keen interest in the Library of Congress and its collections, including approving the first law defining the role and functions of the new institution. He personally recommended books for the Library and appointed the first two librarians of Congress, John J. Beckley (1802–1807) and Patrick Magruder (1807–1815).

.25 pt rule separates main text from contact information below.
The distance from the rule to the top of the text box below is .08 inches.

Bold contact information, labeled "Contact information-bold" in the styles menu

Contact information, labeled "Contact information" in the styles menu

The baseline of the last line of text in this text box should be .25 inches from the bottom edge of the page.

Dummy copy. For seasonal park hour changes and special event information contact:

Fort Pulaski National Monument
P.O. Box 30757
Savannah, Georgia 31410-0757
912 786-5787